cool stuff -- bargains galore!

ArtWorks "Artists' Junque Sale" is this Saturday, June 5!

Salida's most eagerly anticipated bargain bonanza starts at 9 am this Saturday, June 5. It's ArtWorks' big 2nd annual "Artists' Junque Sale", 9 am-12 noon at the Salida Scout Hut, 210 E.

Sackett St. on the east end of Riverside Park.

This giant, artsy flea market is your chance to grab high-quality creative treasures of all kinds at "starving-artist" prices. You'll find art and craft supplies, antiques and collectibles; recycled art; photography gear; classy housewares and unique décor; musical instruments; studio furnishings and fixtures; jewelry; fabrics; books and CDs; and really cool...junque!

Last year's Artists' Junque Sale—the first ever—was a near-sell-out....so you're advised to arrive early (and bring large wads of cash!)

Salida Farmers Market to sell fresh, juicy, locally grown art

The Salida Farmers Market kicks off its third year on Sat. June 19—and for the second year in a row will feature the newest, juiciest work of local artisans along with the fresh produce, breads and burritos.

Salida ArtWorks is making sales booth space available to local artists at a discounted rate—and everything from original painting and sculpture to jewelry, photography, ceramics and more will be displayed. All of the selling booth spaces offered by ArtWorks have been snapped up; and will be featured on the following Saturdays: June 19; July 3, 17 and 31; Aug. 7 and 21; Sept. 4 and 18; and Oct. 9.

The Salida Farmers Market is held every Saturday throughout the summer at Alpine Park, 5th and E St., from 8 am to 12:30 pm. A project of the Central Colorado Foodshed Alliance, the Market features fresh produce, mushrooms, live plants, pastries and breads, meats, eggs and cheeses and more—plus live music, Master Gardeners and prepared foods served on site. For info, visit ccfa.coop/local-food/salida-farmers-market..

With 100+ participants, Salida Artposium is hailed as “best ever”

“Wade In The Water”, the 3-day Artposium presented May 21-23 by Colorado Art Ranch and Salida ArtWorks, attracted more than 100 participants, who gave it universal praise. The seventh Artposium to be staged by Art Ranch, “Wade” featured lectures by luminaries in the arts and sciences, and hands-on workshops led by local artisans, to examine the “art, science, sound and celebration of water”.

“There were over 100 participants in total,” said Art Ranch Executive Director Grant Pound. “Many long-time Nomads (“attendees”) told me this was the best Artposium ever. For me, the help we got from Denny Arter and the Artposium Committee, Sue Keyes and the art buddies and Sue Mills, gave me more time...to broadcast the event to a much larger audience.”

Featured speakers were acclaimed author/naturalist Craig Childs; former Colorado Supreme Court Justice and published poet Greg Hobbs; and prominent professor, activist, author and installation artist Basia Irland.

Workshops were presented by sculptor Amy Laugesen, naturalist Linda Overlin, poet Barbara Ford, artist Sherrie York, photographer Kit Hedman, writer Susan J. Tweit, and musician Bones. Throughout the weekend, participants enjoyed entertainment provided by “The Noteables” with “You’ve Got Male”, and the River Tribe Drum and Dance Troupe with poet Lawton Eddy—plus a morning bird walk with Andrew Mackie and water meditation with Marsha Sherry.

“The whole event held together well,” said Pound. “The speakers and workshop leaders were professional, insightful, and good sports. The Nomads were da Bomb.”

You can learn more about Colorado Art Ranch programs at coloradoartranch.org.

18th annual Salida ArtWalk is June 25-27

More than 50 downtown galleries, shops and restaurants will welcome visitors to the 18th annual Salida ArtWalk from Fri. June 25 through Sun. June 27. The popular event draws crowds of art fans from all over the country, and underscores Salida’s reputation as “One of the 100 best small art towns in America”.

Highlighting this year’s ArtWalk will be a presentation by artist Christo, Friday from 5-7 pm at the SteamPlant Theater. Christo will discuss previous projects as well as his current work in progress, “Over The River, Project for the Arkansas River, State of Colorado”, which he and his late wife Jeanne-Claude started in 1992.

ArtWalk will kick off Friday night with gallery openings from 5-9 pm; and a preview viewing of the popular “Miniature Masterpieces” silent auction artworks at the SteamPlant. On Saturday, participating galleries will host visitors from 10 am-9 pm, with special artists' receptions from 5-9 pm; and will open Sunday from 10 am-4 pm. Many galleries will feature special events, exhibits and demonstrations; and visitors will be entertained all weekend by street performers, horse-drawn carriage rides, live music, and other festive high jinks.

For a complete list of participating venues and scheduled events, visit salidaartwalk.org.

Salida's Cultural Center launches membership drive

Friends of the SteamPlant, an independent, all-volunteer organization not connected with the City of Salida, has begun their annual membership drive and invites everyone to join. The group supports the Salida SteamPlant—our town's cultural centerpiece—with volunteer help, and fundraising for major capital needs and rent subsidies to qualified local organizations.

"Friends" president Scott Adams says he likes to think of the SteamPlant as "a family room for the region that the Friends help furnish, keep neat for visitors, and financially assist the community to use." Funds from the membership drive supplement grants and other fundraising efforts, and help to support the Paquette Gallery and Strawn-Grether Sculpture Garden.

Membership levels range from $50 to $1,000; and donations to the non-profit are tax deductible. Both individuals and businesses are encouraged to join, with various rewards available at each level. According to Adams, the greatest reward of membership is supporting the cultural enrichment of the community.

ArtWorks sponsors free writing seminar with 2009 Art Ranch Residency winner

New York writer Alex Van Ark, a 2009 Colorado Art Ranch Residency recipient, will return to Salida in July to lead a series of writing seminars titled "Writing Your Life: Crafting Creative Non-Fiction and Memoir From Life Experience". The series, sponsored by Salida ArtWorks, will run on three consecutive Sunday afternoons, July 11, 18 & 25, from 2-4:30 pm at the Salida Regional Library. The series is free and open to the first ten participants who sign up. Topics include:

July 11:

"Find Your Inner Storyteller".

Discover the pleasure of writing creative non-fiction and memoir. Participate in exercises designed to spark the muse and develop a clear creative voice.

July 18:

"Create the Mythology of Your Life".

Explore techniques designed to transform seemingly mundane memories into fresh and exciting myths and legends.

July 25:

"Whoop It Up At A Cowboy Story Hour".

The final session will be devoted to participants interested in reading their newly crafted stories to those assembled. Alex will end with a discussion of methods of publishing and sharing your writing with friends, family and the world.

For more info and/or to sign up for the series, email alex@alexvanark.com.

Salida has many special-interest groups where you can find like-minded creatives with whom to share ideas, companionship, inspiration and activities.

ARTPORTUNITIES

CALL FOR PROPOSALS—ARTISTS:

Paquette Gallery at the Salida SteamPlant invites proposals from regional artists for public exhibitions at the gallery during 2011. Both 2- and 3-dimensional art will be considered; deadline for application is June 30. For details and application form, visit salidasteamplant.com and click on “Main/Download Forms/Paquette Gallery Artist Proposal”.

CALL FOR ENTRIES—ARTISTS & VENDORS:

Arkansas Valley Art Center has announced the first annual Fine Arts & Fine Crafts Festival, Sat. July 10, 9 am-4 pm at McPhelemy Park in Buena Vista. The juried event will showcase artists and craftspersons from around the region. Vendors are invited to rent sales booths—cost is $50 plus $12 for town tax license. Artists and vendors interested in applying should contact Karen at 719.395.8372 or email AVAC at artinfo@avacgallery.com

CALL FOR ENTRIES--ARTISTS: Art Matters Gallery

invites non-members of the gallery to apply for two juried exhibits to be held during 2010. They are: Body Language (Aug 4.-Sept. 25); entry deadline July 7; and Fiber Art Exhibit (Nov.-Dec.); entry deadline Oct. 7. Contact the gallery at 539.2383, or email artmatters@earthlink.net

OPENINGS & SHOWS

An exhibit of photos from John Fielder’s book “Ranches Of Colorado”—like this stunning shot of Last Dollar Ranch near Ridgway—is now on display at Fremont Center for the Arts.

DIA SHOW: The Colorado Art Ranch exhibit at Denver International Airport, titled “33 Ideas” and originally scheduled to end June 15, has been extended until August (woohoo!) So there’s still time to see this wonderful show of visual and literary artists (including many from Salida). The exhibit is on display in the walkway between the Main Terminal and Concourse A, before the security screening area.

For info see flydenver.com/artexhibits.

ERIC WULFSBERG: “Western Reflections,” an exhibit of photographs by Colorado Springs artist Eric Wulfsberg, is on display at Heart of the Rockies Regional Medical Center through August 31. HRRMC is hosting three art exhibits this year in the main hallway of the hospital’s first floor, as part of its mission to create a healing environment. The hospital displays the work of artists from around Colorado, particularly the Arkansas Valley. For info on exhibiting art at HRRMC, call 530.2217.

SUSAN CONNER: Through June 27, Art Matters Gallery & Studio, 119 E. 1st St., will display the juried exhibit “Dancing in the Moonlight”, featuring works by various Colorado artists depicting night, evening and dawn. Also on exhibit will be new works by mixed media artist Susan Conner, the Gallery’s Artist of the Month for June. Info at art-matters-gallery.com

HENRY MOORE: The Denver Botanic Gardens continues its exhibit of 20 monumental sculptures by Henry Moore (1898-1986). The sculptures are at both the 10th & York St. and Chatfield locations; and an indoor exhibit at York St. will include a display of Moore’s maquettes and tools. Lectures, guided tours and other programs are available. Exhibition continues through Jan. 31, 2011; info at botanicgardens.org or 720.865.3500.

FRED HUBICKI: Original paintings by Fred Hubicki from his Rocky Mountain Series are on display through June 30 at the SteamPlant’s Paquette Gallery. An artist’s reception will be held during ArtWalk from 4-6 pm on Fri. June 25. Gallery hours are 10-3 weekdays, 11-2 Saturdays.

JOHN FIELDER: Famed photographer John Fielder will present an exhibit of photos from his acclaimed “Ranches Of Colorado” book, June 1-Aug. 31 at the Fremont Center for the Arts, 505 Macon Ave. in Canon City. Fielder will give an informative lecture there on June 5 at 1 pm; and will be on hand for an artist’s reception that evening at 7 pm. Info at fremontarts.org or call 275.2790.

In his “Rocky Mountain Series” exhibit at Paquette Gallery, Fred Hubicki combines “the use of scale, the illusory method of atmospheric perspective and the tactile means of color value to give the viewer a sense of not only the height but also the depth of these magnificent mountains.

WHO'S DOIN' WHAT

Whassup?--no sooner does artist/chef Curtis Killorn wow us with his terrific new Italian restaurant, Manjati's...than half of Salida suddenly feels inspired to visit Italy! Globetrotter Roberta Smith just got back from an extended "Avventura Italiano" to Naples, the Amalfi Coast, and the Puglia Adriatic Coast ("I had a great time, drank lots of yummy wine and only gained 3 pounds!"); and artist Donna Wagle is packing as we speak for a 2-week tour of Rome, Orvieto, Cinque Terre, Pisa, Florence, Venice and Murano—whew!. (Those of us on limited travel budgets can stay home and drown our sorrows in Manjati's killer Spumoni Cheesecake).....Latest report from ArtWorks spies in Asheville NC sez that Salida expatriate artist Michael Parry "looks younger than he has in years" and "may have a girlfriend!" (Not to imply any correlation between the two).....Coaldale painter Linda Bat and sculptor cohort Rus Hinman—who also happen to be nationally esteemed alpaca breeders—have found an admirable new use for their luxurious alpaca fleeces. They're baling them up and shipping 'em to Louisiana to be used as absorbent barriers against the Gulf oil spill.....

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Salida Citizen co-founder

Bill Donovan, who got attacked and mauled by his own 1993 Ford van on May 21 when he stopped to patronize a lemonade stand (brewpubs are much safer, Bill!) Donovan suffered 16 broken ribs, a broken collarbone, lacerated liver and bruised lungs; and as Hotline went to press, was recovering at Denver's St. Anthony Hospital. Friends can read updates and post messages at salidacitizen.com; and drop off get-well cards with Scott Damman at Pinon Real Estate, who will deliver them to Bill.....Who sez Salida ain't got no kultcher?! Check out the bodacious Belly Dancing show at Salida Café (aka Bongo's) every 4th Monday through August from 6-8 pm. Bolshoi Ballet, eat your heart out.....Huge thanks and good luck to Historic Salida Inc. and its president Earl Kittleman, who are rallying an eleventh hour grassroots effort to try and save the historic Unique Theater building from impending demolition. Your help is urgently needed before one of Salida's loveliest old landmarks comes crashing down—email Historic Salida at savetheunique@yahoo.com for info.
